

MARR-MAC DANCE AND THEATRE ARTS
SUMMER DANCE GALLERY
ADVERTORIAL, 2010

Annual Summer Program offers classes for Senior Junior and Beginner dancers!

Marr-Mac Dance and Theatre Arts Centre has been in operation since 1968 under the directorship of Deane Marr and Cathy McFarlane. Their annual summer program has welcomed guest teachers such as Veronica Tennant and Frank Augustyn. Students who attend the weeklong intensive program are propelled in their training, with the benefits of strength and technique carrying them into their next dance season. Students are assessed in class the first couple of days to make sure they are dancing at a suitable level. Guest Instructors are invited to specifically work with students who are training to be professionals as well as the recreational dancer.

Marr-Mac is registering for Summer Dance Gallery 2010. The workshop runs July 5-10 during which dancers aged 4 years to Advanced put in a full day of dance disciplines to include Ballet, Pointe, Jazz, Hip-Hop, and Lyrical. The Beginner program for 4-8 year olds runs July 5-9 and includes, Creative Movement, Dance Crafts, Tap, Jazz and Song & Dance.

This years guest Instructors include, Sabrina Phillips from L.A. California, Krista Savage from Vancouver, B.C. and Melissa Staroszik from Edmonton.

The warm and welcoming atmosphere at Marr-Mac allows all students to feel at home quickly. Students come from a variety of studios and dance backgrounds. Billeting is arranged for out of town students with a family from Marr-Mac. Teachers who bring six or more full time students receive a teacher discount to participate in or to observe classes.

Marr-Mac is located in the quaint Old Strathcona area of Edmonton, close to Whyte Avenue, bus routes, restaurants and shops. It offers a 10,000 square foot facility with five studios, raised floors and high ceilings.

Registration is now in progress. Registration forms are available on line @ www.marrmac.com or at (780) 434-9281. Email, marrmac@telus.net.
